Established in 1996, the Hotel Association of India (HAI) is the apex organization of the Indian Hospitality Industry. With its membership extending from the major hotel chains, boutique hotels and heritage hotels to large, medium-sized and smaller hotels, it represents the entire spectrum of the industry.

Its Executive Committee is a potent combination of the commitment of hotel owners on one hand and hard-core professionalism of hotel managers on the other. From Industry veterans to budding hoteliers, the Committee is imbued with experience and fresh ideas in its determination to shape a bright future for the Hotel Industry in India.

Mission:

To secure for the hotel industry its due place in India's economy and project its role "as the largest net foreign exchange earner; contributor to employment generation and sustainable economic and social development; highlight its crucial role in the service of tourism industry in helping raise the standards of hoteliering and to build an image for this industry - both within and outside the country."

Objectives:

- To plan, promote and protect by lawful means the interests of the Hotel Industry (hereafter called the "Industry");
- To help raise the standards, growth and efficiency of the Industry;
- To project the Industry's role as a contributor to national exchequer and employment generation;
- To aim for globalization of the Industry and its integration with the world economy in conformity with national policies;

- To take up issues of national and international importance affecting the Industry;
- To communicate with Industrial Associations, Chambers of Commerce and other commercial, industrial or public bodies for undertaking measures to protect Industry's interests;
- To organize and facilitate national and international Conferences, Seminars, Study Courses and other action-oriented programs to further the interests of the Industry;
- To issue, publish and circulate in India and abroad such papers, periodicals, books, pamphlets and other literature as may be in the interests of the Industry;
- To publish a Hotel Guide/ Directory or Journal as and when required - as priced publications or otherwise;
- To interface with Central and State governments, and other authorities on issues concerning the industry;
- To synergize with all segments of the industry and apex bodies of the tourism sector in India and overseas and work for the creation of a common platform.

The Organisation:

- The Hotel Association of India - HAI serves as a national point of reference for the Industry in India;
- Functions through a federal three-tier structure at the national level, state level and city level through its voluntary Chapters;
- Is represented on all major policy-making bodies concerned with the Industry.

PREFACE

The Hotel Association of India (HAI) has pleasure in presenting the 2024 edition of the Directory of Hotels. While fulfilling the need for an authentic digest of member properties, the Directory also serves as a useful hotel guide to the traveler - foreign and domestic, traveling for leisure or taking a business trip.

HAI member-hotels are among the best globally and are well known for their quality accommodation with consistent standards of comfort and guest services at several locations across the country.

If the Taj Connemara, Chennai could speak, it would tell you tales from its history, the place became a household name across the globe, for it was here where the blue-blooded indulged and entertained. But little did anyone know how history would shape the fate of the entire colonial empire, and this small but significant beginning of it. As the presidency of Madras became the metropolitan of Chennai, the iconic Connemara was entrusted into the hands of the Taj Management in 1984. Today, this symbolic 5 star hotel in Chennai has been carefully restored to its premier status with influences inspired by the past and present. Set in the heart of Chennai, Taj Connemara is 19 kms from the airport and 4 kms from Central & Egmore Railway Stations, while LIC Metro Station is just 1 km.

Dining:

Dining in the South is a whole new experience, and its breadth and depth is probably lesser known compared to the more popular cuisine of the North. The flavours are gentler, the spices fewer, the richness more contained. Multiple and vegan dining options will delight both the vegetarians and the adventurous. From Anglo-Indian and global mainstays at The Verandah, to culinary heirlooms of Chettinad at the award-winning Raintree and the 19th century inspired English Afternoon Tea service at the Lady Connemara Bar, the ambience of our restaurant in Chennai, is just as tasteful.

Stretched 20 acres across the foot of the Aravalli mountains, Devi Ratn, our luxury hotel in Jaipur, is a kaleidoscopic rendition of everything Jaipur stands for with its avant-garde, surreal and intricate design. A 45 minute ride from the airport, these premises are a vivid reimagination of the Pink City. With design and geometry, Devi Ratn narrates an astronomical story. Once in, you aren't going to be forgetting the experience for a long time. Its sprawling architecture, inspired by the 18th century Jantar Mantar astronomical observatory and the coral pink reception with a domed ceiling ensures that. It follows through with latticework, geometric shapes, red-stone art, thekri (broken mirror) work, local craft like blue pottery, paisley & leheriya prints - strong local influences at every nook & corner with a rather contemporary treatment.

Accommodation:

Design and geometry blend seamlessly to re-imagine a space uniquely Jaipur. Explore the city from the comfort of Devi Ratn as you experience its Jantar Mantar-inspired parametric designs, its Rajasthani motifs amidst avant-garde structures, and an astronomical love of the natural. All with an enviable view of the Aravallis. From every room.
