Taj Kumarakom Resort & Spa, Kerala is a heritage retreat set amidst 15 acres of lush greenery and tranquil backwaters. With only 28 exclusive villas and cottages, it offers an intimate luxury experience steeped in history. The resort traces its origins to 1881, when the Baker family, founders of modern Kumarakom, built their residence here. The original colonial bungalow still graces the lagoon's edge, while the estate is dotted with century-old trees and water bodies, adjacent to the famed Kumarakom Bird Sanctuary. The J Wellness Circle, rooted in a 50-year-old Ayurveda tradition, continues to provide authentic therapies under expert guidance.

Accommodation:

The resort offers 6 Heritage Rooms with Lagoon Pool Views, reflecting 150 years of legacy. 10 Premium Cottages overlook serene lagoons, while 8 Luxury Villas feature lotus garden views and open-air showers. For ultimate indulgence, 4 Grand Luxury Pool Villas provide private pools, blending space, nature & exclusivity for an unforgettable stay.
